420 RACING COACH POSITION OVERVIEW
(Seasonal)

The Orleans Yacht Club, Inc. (OYC) currently seeks candidates for a 420 Race Coach. This is a seasonal position to provide leadership and supervision for our Junior Sailing Program (JSP) 420 Racing Team. We focus race Team classes on perfecting the processes involved in sailboat racing based on U.S. Sailing Rules and Regulations. Emphasis is on having fun in a competitive atmosphere while building racing skills and preparing for regattas. This highly organized individual will report to the Camp Director. The Race Coach will work closely with other JSP Senior Instructors, interact with parents, OYC members, club leadership, the OYC Club Administrator, and the JSP Sailing Program Camp Director when and as needed.

The OYC is located on Town Cove in Orleans, MA, and has been teaching youth sailing since 1947. The JSP has approximately 200 students and operates an eight-week summer camp. It comprises five levels of sailing (Beginner, Intermediate, Skipper, Advanced, and Race Team) and uses Opti's, Capri's, Precision15's & 420's.

The OYC's Junior Sailing Program is a recreational day camp and complies with regulations of the MA Department of Public Health and is licensed by the Orleans Board of Health.
