♦ SAILING is an active, outdoor, group experience which requires full and complete participation from ALL students. I/we understand that the Junior Sailing Program reserves the right to determine whether or not a child is able to meet the physical and emotional rigors of the program and understand that the Program relies on the information contained in this application form, medical information and other forms provided on behalf of the child to make this determination.

♦ STUDENT BEHAVIOR/CONDUCT: I/we assume responsibility for the behavior and conduct of my child while participating in the JSP and confirm that the Student Code of Conduct has been reviewed with my child. In the event of violations of the Code of Conduct or other such circumstances, the JSP reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to expel a student before the completion of their session. I/we assume responsibility for any injuries, damages, expenses, or repairs resulting from my child's actions while enrolled in the Program.
INITIAL_YES_NO

♦ STUDENT PARTICIPATION RISK: The OYC and the JSP staff make every effort to conduct a safe program and risk management is an essential element of that. While the program anticipates that its efforts will ensure the wellbeing of each child, the JSP is also aware that it is neither possible to foresee every contingency nor to eliminate all risk. Sailing activities inherently involve some risks that children do not routinely encounter at home. I/We recognize and accept that some risk is inherent to sailing as a water sport, including but not limited to grounding, accidental jibes, man-over-boards, sudden variations in wind and sea conditions, submersion in various depths of water, accidental collisions with other watercraft or submerged obstructions, or other hazards to navigation, or equipment failures which may occur without warning. I/We grant full permission for my child to participate in the JSP and acknowledge such risks exist and I hereby agree on behalf of my child to assume such risks. I understand and agree that my child shares the responsibility for their own safety during OYC's JSP activities.
